Apple is a global business operating in the telecommunication and technology industry. In September 2022, Apple launched its iPhone 14. The selling price was £150 more than the previous model, the iPhone 13. There were only a few differences between the two models.

Firstly, Apple has removed the physical SIM card slot and replaced it with an electronic SIM, or eSIM. This makes switching networks very easy. Secondly, Apple has introduced satellite reception for the iPhone. This means that owners in the USA can use an emergency SOS service where no mobile network can reach them.

Apple iPhones are used around the world.

- 4 (a) Outline one reason why Apple may choose to use email to communicate with its suppliers.
